Psalm 145

Pray:

Begin by thanking God for his word and asking him to teach you from His word.

An Introduction:

Psalm 145 is one of six psalms of praise that group together to end the Book of Psalms. It is a psalm of praise to God for who he is, what he has done, doing and will do. The author is King David. He speaks not only of his own reason for praising God (verses 1,2 and 21a) but justifies it by the endorsement of others who praise God for the same reasons (verses 3 to 20). Not only that, he invites others, like ourselves, to join them in praising God (Verse 21b).

Go verse by verse and ask “What reasons does David give for praise to God? What is it about who God is, what he has done, doing and will do that proves he is to be praised? What proof of these reasons have you experienced in your life?”

<sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, my God the King;

I will praise your name for ever and ever.

<sup>2</sup> Every day I will praise you

and extol your name for ever and ever.

<sup>3</sup> Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise;

his greatness no one can fathom.

they tell of your mighty acts.

and I will meditate on your wonderful works.

and I will proclaim your great deeds.

<sup>7</sup> They celebrate your abundant goodness

and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

<sup>8</sup> The Lord is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger and rich in love.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord is good to all;

he has compassion on all he has made.

<sup>10</sup> All your works praise you, Lord;

your faithful people extol you.

<sup>11</sup> They tell of the glory of your kingdom

and speak of your might,

<sup>12</sup> so that all people may know of your mighty acts

and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

and your dominion endures through all generations.

The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises

and faithful in all he does.

<sup>14</sup> The Lord upholds all who fall

and lifts up all who are bowed down.

<sup>15</sup> The eyes of all look to you,

and you give them their food at the proper time.

<sup>16</sup> You open your hand

and satisfy the desires of every living thing.

<sup>17</sup> The Lord is righteous in all his ways

and faithful in all he does.

<sup>18</sup> The Lord is near to all who call on him,

to all who call on him in truth.

<sup>19</sup> He fulfils the desires of those who fear him;

he hears their cry and saves them.

<sup>20</sup> The Lord watches over all who love him,

but all the wicked he will destroy.

<sup>21</sup> My mouth will speak in praise of the Lord.

Let every creature praise his holy name for ever and ever.

End by reading the psalm together as a prayer of praise to God with your group.
